

Day Reporting Center (DRC)

The Day Reporting Center is a branch of the Twin County Community Probation Center located in Three Rivers, Michigan. This center works in conjunction with the local courts as a testing facility for alcohol and illegal drug use for offenders who have been placed on probation with the courts, or for those persons recently posting bail on certain types of criminal cases where testing has been ordered as part of the conditional release.

The DRC's main office is located at 210 South Main Street in Three Rivers, Michigan, 49093 and is typically open Monday through Friday; Business days and hours will vary. Telephone (269)-279-9592

The DRC's satellite office is located at 307 W. Chicago Road Suite 270 in Sturgis, Michigan, 49091. Business days and hours will vary. Telephone (269)-467-1001 extension 370

The DRC offices are closed between 12:00 PM and 1:00 PM daily.

If there are any testing conditions placed on a person, they should contact the DRC main office at (269)-279-9592 between 9 am and 4 pm on the next business day Monday – Friday after release or as ordered by the court.